ABOUT: BANGALORE CITY GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

"The Bangalore City Group of Institutions, established in 2002, is a private educational body in Bengaluru, founded by the Saudagar Education Society. With a commitment to providing quality, career-focused education, it offers a diverse range of courses across streams like Nursing, (GNM ,PB B.Sc. B.Sc., M.Sc.), Physiotherapy, Pharmacy. Catering to both undergraduate and postgraduate students. The institution is affiliated with the Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, KSNC and the Indian Nursing Council (INC), emphasizing its strength in healthcare-related disciplines. BCGOI focuses on developing competent and compassionate professionals by blending academic knowledge with practical skills, and it provides essential facilities such as hostel accommodation and placement support for its students."

ABOUT: THE NURSING SCHOLAR SOCIETY

The Nursing Scholar Society (NSS) is a non-profit professional association with the core vision of "Care for the Caregivers." The main mission of the NSS is to encourage the scholarly skills of nurses in writing and speech across all spheres of the nursing profession. Keeping this aim in mind, it was decided to host a national-level conference on the theme: "Educational Strategies and Challenges."
